

Document Checklist for SAB Applications

Foreign-Trained Doctor

Name of Applicant : _____

NRIC / Passport No. : _____

Specialty : _____

Please submit the checklist together with documents arranged in the following order. Incomplete applications will be returned to applicants. * All documents should be certified as true copies.

- Online application for Specialist Accreditation
- Certificate of completion of specialist training programme or proof of entry into a specialist register from the relevant accrediting/licensing authority in the country
- Postgraduate Medical Qualification
- Basic Medical Qualification
- Service Testimonials from previous and current employing institutions (if any)
- Updated curricula-vitae with details including:
  - Summary of clinical training received and competencies attained – provide period of training and summary of training logbooks where available;
  - Summary of clinical, academic and research work experience in the specialty applied for;
  - Evidence of currency of continuing professional development or updating of skills/ training in the specialty applied for – provide evidence for the past 1-2 years prior to this application.
- Other relevant information e.g. specialty-specific publications, etc

Remarks :

---

You may mail this checklist together with the supporting documents to:

Specialists Accreditation Board Secretariat
16 College Road #01-01
College of Medicine Building
Singapore 169854