Dear <Salutation> <Name>

REVISED PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION COMMISSION (PDPC) GUIDELINES FOR HEALTHCARE SECTOR

I would like to draw your attention to the revised PDPC Guidelines for the Healthcare sector.

The revised Advisory Guidelines makes clear PDPC's position that:

- a) Clinics that have been sending reminder messages to a patient by post before 2nd July 2014 can continue to do so until the patient indicates that he no longer wishes to receive them; and
- b) Where a patient has made an appointment with a clinic for a subsequent visit, a reminder sent by the clinic solely for the purpose of reminding the patient of the appointment would unlikely be considered a specified message.

The revised guidelines can be found at <https://www.pdpc.gov.sg/legislation-and-guidelines/advisory-guidelines/sector-specific-advisory-guidelines> .

Yours sincerely,

Clin A/Prof Patrick Tseng
Registrar
