

31 January 2012

To: All Graduate Dentists

SINGAPORE DENTAL COUNCIL ELECTION 2012:
2 April 2012 (0800hrs) to 9 April 2012 (1900hrs)

The term of office of the incumbent members of the Dental Council will expire at the end of April 2012. As such, Dental Council elections will be held again in April 2012.

2 All graduate dentists will be required to elect five members to the Council. The Minister of Health will appoint another five Division I dentists, one Division II dentist and minimum of one Oral Health Therapist to form the new Council. They will assume office on 1 May 2012.

3 As there are five vacancies, you may propose or second not more than five nominations. The person you nominate must consent to be a candidate in this election.

4 Your kind attention is drawn to Section 7* of the Dental Registration Act (Chapter 76) (the "Act"), stating who may NOT qualify as a member of the Council. If you intend to run as a candidate in this election, you should familiarize yourself with the relevant provisions of the Act and the Dentists Regulations**. Parts of the Act pertaining to the election and to the Council are reproduced on the reverse of this page for reference.

5 Nomination closes at 1700hr on Tuesday, 28th February 2012. You may hand in your Nomination Form at the Council's office to Ms Norisah Ahmad, Ms Cheryl Loh, Ms Jerlynn Tan, Ms Yee Yoke Chun or to the undersigned. Alternatively, you may send the same by registered mail or recorded delivery, (NOT by normal mail, please). Submissions of nominations by email or fax will be deemed invalid.
