

AHPC Ref: 5.8

Circular Number: 1905-C02

Date: 2 May 2019

To: All Allied Health Professionals and Human Resource Personnel

DIGITISING REGISTRATION OUTCOMES

The AHPC would like to inform that with effect from 1 June 2019 (Saturday), the following outcome letters will be sent via e-mail to all registered allied health professionals and employing institutions:

- i. Registration approvals;
- ii. Letters to refer applicants to take the Qualifying Examinations (QE);
- iii. In-principle approval letter to apply for work pass in Singapore;
- iv. Outcome of application for additional qualifications;
- v. Reminders for the QE (a month before the deadline);
- vi. Replies to requests for change in employer from allied health professionals on Conditional and Restricted registration; and
- vii. Confirmations of withdrawn applications.

The AHPC will no longer be mailing hardcopy letters for the above to all registered allied health professionals and employing institutions.

2 The AHPC will also be sending a copy of the supervised practice guidelines and Code of Professional Conduct (COPC) to new registrants via e-mail from 1 June 2019. These documents can also be downloaded from the AHPC website (www.ahpc.gov.sg) under "Forms and Downloads".

3 All allied health professionals are reminded to read the COPC to ensure that they do not breach any of the principles and standards as laid out in the COPC document. All newly registered allied health professionals who are required to undergo supervision must read the supervised practice guidelines before they begin their supervision.

TIMELY UPDATE OF EMAILS WITH AHPC

4 All allied health professionals are reminded to check and update their e-mail addresses in the Professional Registration System promptly. All human resource personnel are also reminded to update the AHPC Secretariat of their e-mail addresses to receive timely announcements and/or notices from the AHPC.
